GENERAL RESOURCES FOR ALL FAITHS

EIGHT STEPS TOWARDS HARMLESSNESS AND UNIVERSAL LOVINGKINDNESS

These are 8 steps that could be introduced either one at a time or all together. The goal of these steps is to bring the golden rule ideal of harmless and lovingkindness into alignment with everyday community practices. You can do this alone, but it is very helpful if you have some interested community members who could join you in forming a “Green” committee or similar group that could help you promote these steps.

1. Include at least one prayer/intention each week for animals in the meetings/ services. Join the Worldwide Prayer Circle for Animals at circleofcompassion.org as a group/congregation.
2. Include reverence for and kinship with all God’s creatures in the group’s mission statement. Include language such as “guardian” rather than “owner” when referring to animal companions. (See In Defense of Animals’ Guardian Campaign, idausa.org). Use “he” or “she,” rather than “it,” when referring to animals.
3. Help develop a policy to remove or repel insects, mice and others without harming them and to protect birds from hitting large windows.
4. Encourage education and discussion about how the community can help animals by hosting films, speakers, and book studies about veganism and doing no harm to animals. Also, education about the intersectionality of all social justice movements, including animal rights, is very important.

5. Encourage group outings that are nonviolent, such as hiking, camping, and canoeing, instead of hunting, fishing, rodeos, zoos, and circuses.
6. Require that members not wear fur into the meeting area out of respect for the beautiful creatures who are brutally raised and killed for vanity.
7. Begin purchasing paper, cleaning products, candles, etc. that are ecologically sustainable, fair-trade, and certified cruelty-free.
8. Certainly the most challenging step, but the most dramatic in its message of compassion and social justice, will be for the group to sponsor only cruelty-free meals. Sharing plant-based meals as a community acknowledges our commitment to our own physical health, the health of the earth, the hungry of the world (since a plant-based diet uses far fewer resources than an animal diet does), and the right of all animals to live their own lives free from human exploitation and violence. Sponsoring only plant-based meals also signifies respect and inclusion of those church members who are already committed vegans.

QUOTES CONNECTING WORLD PEACE AND VEGANISM

As long as people will shed the blood of innocent creatures there can be no peace, no liberty, no harmony between people. Slaughter and justice cannot dwell together.--Isaac Bashevis Singer

As long as there are slaughterhouses, there will be battlefields.—Leo Tolstoy

Until he extends the circle of compassion to all living things, man will not himself find peace.
--Albert Schweitzer

Until we have the courage to recognize cruelty for what it is--whether its victim is human or animal--we cannot expect things to be much better in this world... We cannot have peace among men whose hearts delight in killing any living creature. By every act that glorifies or even tolerates such moronic delight in killing we set back the progress of humanity.--Rachel Carson

We are the living graves of murdered beasts, slaughtered to satisfy our appetites. How can we hope in this world to attain the peace we say we are so anxious for?--George Bernard Shaw
For as long as men massacre animals, they will kill each other. Indeed, he who sows the seed of murder and pain cannot reap joy and love.--Pythagoras

"The human cycle of violence will not stop until we stop the underlying violence, the remorseless violence we commit against animals for food. --Will Tuttle

"We need never look for universal peace on this earth until men stop killing animals for food. The lust for blood has permeated the race thought and the destruction of life will continue to repeat its psychology, the world round, until men willingly observe the law in all phases of life, 'Thou shalt not kill.'"--Charles Fillmore

MUSIC

Daniel Redwood's album, "Songs for Animals, People, and the Earth." These can be heard and played on his website The album can also be purchased on that website.

Paul Seymour's songs, including "Maybe JC Was a Vegetarian." Although he mentions Jesus, he references other traditions as well. His music with video can be seen here. His website has several other vegan songs with videos that are humorous, such as "Don't Eat Like a Barbarian" and "These Boots Ain't Made of Leather."

Vegan Smyth's "I Will Be Their Voice," is located here.

Why Must We Eat The Animals? \(Oh Why Oh Why?\)

BOOKS

An Unnatural Order: The Roots of Our Destruction of Nature by Jim Mason. "...the book explores, from an anthropological, sociocultural, and holistic perspective, how and why we have cut ourselves off from other animals and the natural world, and the toll this has taken on our consciousness..."

Carbon Dharma: The Occupation of Butterflies, by Sailesh Rao

Carbon Yoga: The Vegan Metamorphosis, by Sailesh Rao

Peace to All Beings: Veggie Soup for the Chicken's Soul and The Missing Peace: The Hidden Power of our Kinship with Animals; 2 books by Judy Carman

JoAnn Farb's Books to Inspire Compassion or Critical Thinking for Children

A Plea for the Animals: The Moral, Philosophical, and Evolutionary Imperative to Treat All Beings with Compassion, by Matthieu Ricard

World Peace Diet: Eating for Spiritual Health and Social Harmony by Will Tuttle, Ph.D

DOCUMENTARIES AND VIDEO

"A Life Connected" is a short, 11 minute, but powerful and feel-good video .

"The Compassion Project," by Thomas Jackson, slated for spring of 2018. Thomas interviews faith leaders who are vegan and some who are not. This film promises to be a wonderful way to spark discussion of the spiritual and ethical reasons to stop killing and using animals. Watch a preview here. A 30-Day Vegan Challenge will accompany the film.

"Cowspiracy" and "What the Health" can be seen on Netflix.

"Earthlings" is a very intense video that shows the unbelievable cruelty endured by animals at human hands. If you plan to show it, you need to give people fair warning. While it has caused many people to go vegan on the spot, it can be traumatic to watch, and viewers need to be given great compassion and care while watching it.

"Forks Over Knives" available on Netflix and to purchase.

"Mad Cowboy" available on YouTube.

"The Metaphysics of Food," by Will Tuttle is located here.

"Peaceable Kingdom" and "The Witness" can be watched free online.

"Vegucated" can be watched online.

"Will and Madeleine Tuttle's You Tube Channel" Here you will find many videos showing Madeleine's cooking demos, Will's piano music, and some of Will's talks. These would be perfect to show at a vegan potluck or an event when you don't have the resources to host a live speaker.

PROGRAMS

Online Radio with Victoria Moran, Main Street Vegan.

Vegan Spirituality monthly conference calls. Anyone can join the calls here.

PRAYERS

The Prayer Circle for Animals (PCA) is a non-denominational circle of people devoted to using action and the power of prayer, meditation, and/or focused thought to liberate all animals from human oppression and exploitation. PCA believes that, by adding the power of prayer to all the other animal rights work currently being done, we can hasten the transformation. A universal, non-denominational prayer on the website has been translated into many languages, you can also find them on facebook.

Peace to All Beings: Veggie Soup for the Chicken's Soul by Judy Carman contains many non-denominational prayers and prayers from different religions. The website contains prayers also and a link to the book.

ACTIVITIES AND CEREMONIES

1. Have a fun ice cream social with only vegan ice cream at your place of worship or meeting. It may be possible to get donations of coupons from the vegan ice cream companies, Ben and Jerrie's and others. Also VegFund may be able to donate money to cover the cost of the ice cream.
2. Organize a vegan potluck for the entire membership or for a book study or other group within the membership. Having a speaker, youtube or documentary at the event might encourage more people to attend.
3. Consider posting on the faith group's Facebook page information about veganism, plant based recipes, health information, and reverence for animals. Be sure to check on any rules about Facebook posts before doing so. If it is something several community members are doing, such as a group prayer for animals or something closely related to programs of the spiritual community, those items should be appropriate for the Facebook and help change perceptions about animals and food.
4. Write a letter to the minister, priest, rabbi, or spiritual leader introducing the idea of addressing animal issues within the spiritual community and asking for a specific action, such as having a vegan potluck and/or a documentary showing.
5. Often places of worship and faith will have opportunities for members to share their own personal stories or testimonies. Those are great chances to share your story about how and why you became vegan.
6. Offering to teach a plant-based cooking class or inviting someone to teach a class.
7. Visit a local animal sanctuary as a field trip for the congregation/community. This is a great way to engage families.

8. Consider having a supply of flyers that can be handed out at certain events or even left in strategic places in the meeting area. The Christian Vegetarian Association has an excellent flyer appropriate for all Christian churches. You can use our advocacy kits to create a flyer for your own tradition.

9. If there are other vegans in your faith community, consider forming a committee that would be responsible for introducing vegan activities to the community, providing both assistance, solidarity, and credibility.

WEBSITES

Society of Ethical and Religious Vegetarians (SERV) is an “Interfaith Peace Effort Pursuing Plant-based, Nonviolent Nutrition.” “We wish to respectfully make religious communities aware that the realities of animal-based diets and agriculture are inconsistent with basic religious teachings, such as those to treat animals with compassion, preserve our health, protect the environment, conserve natural resources, reduce hunger, and pursue peace and nonviolence.” Their “Information” page includes the pamphlet “Veganism and the Major World Religions,” lists of relevant books, music, articles, sample letters to the editor and quotes.

ARTICLES

Do Animals have Souls? By Michael Jawer. Dogs have Souls From the Seattle Times.

Animal Souls, Feelings and Government Torture By Marc Bekoff.

Animals Have Souls and Feelings, Just Like We Do In HinduismToday.

SPEAKERS

You can find a great list of speakers on the American Vegan Society website who are available to give talks on many subjects related to veganism and animal rights.

TRAINING

Will Tuttle’s World Peace Diet Facilitator Training: This training helps you “develop skills to embody, share, and teach healthy and compassionate living for service, fun, and/or your livelihood...The World Peace Diet Facilitator Training Program is created by Dr. Will Tuttle, author of The World Peace Diet,... to help you thrive as a vegan, and to empower you to help create a more harmonious and healthy world. Certification is provided at the completion of the course.
